LS1: YOU AND YOUR COMPANY

PRESENTING YOURSELF

At X-Files, a company for data security in Hamburg, a first meeting is taking place among the apprentices. Each person should introduce themselves, including their background, hobbies and interests. The goal is to organise a social activity programme. Because some of the apprentices do not speak German, the meeting is held in English.

Task1: Introduction Round

Categorise the parts of the conversation according to the topic.
Some may fit into more than one category.

9. "I'm doing my apprenticeship in mechatronics."
10. "I'm local. I live just around the corner from here.

Task 2: For each statement write down a fitting question. Then come up with two more questions that could be asked at a first introduction meeting.

1. "I live in a shared apartment in the city centre."
2. "Hello! I'm Karin."
3. "I love wildlife photography. I spend a lot of time outdoors."
